For Immediate Release

U.S. Attorney's Office, Eastern District of Pennsylvania

PHILADELPHIA – United States Attorney David Metcalf announced that Zaven Yeghiazaryan, 45, of Newtown, Pennsylvania, was sentenced today to 64 months in prison, three years of supervised release, $118,205.94 in restitution, and $151,300 in fines and assessments by United States District Judge Gerald J. Pappert for fraud and money laundering schemes.

In August 2024, Yeghiazaryan was charged by indictment with conspiracy, health care fraud, wire fraud, and money laundering. He pleaded guilty in May of this year.

As detailed in court filings, the charges arose from the defendant's commission of fraud offenses targeting, among others, government programs, including through the use of shell companies and false identities, between January 2020 and April 2024.

Yeghiazaryan's fraud targeted two government programs that offered relief during the Covid-19 pandemic: the Small Business Administration's Economic Injury Disaster Loan program, and the Pandemic Unemployment Assistance program. In addition, the defendant admitted that he participated in a scheme to defraud Medicaid.

This case was investigated by the Social Security Administration Office of Inspector General, IRS Criminal Investigation, U.S. Postal Inspection Service, Homeland Security Investigations, U.S. Department of Health and Human Services Office of Inspector General, U.S. Department of Labor Office of Inspector General, U.S. Department of Transportation Office of Inspector General and the State Department. The case was prosecuted by Special Assistant United States Attorney Megan Curran and Assistant United States Attorney Mary E. Crawley.

Note: the posting of this press release was delayed, due to the federal government shutdown from October 1, 2025, to November 12, 2025.
