Joseph Dobie allegedly used another's identity to fraudulently obtain SNAP and Medicaid benefits

PORTLAND, Maine: A Lewiston man has been charged with identity theft and fraud offenses in connection with an alleged scheme to defraud Medicaid.

Joseph Dobie, 36, of Lewiston, was charged by complaint with aggravated identity theft, false statements relating to health care matters, and unlawful use of Supplemental Nutritional Assistance Program (SNAP) benefits, in connection with an identity theft scheme.

The charges filed in U.S. District Court in Portland are part of the Department of Justice's 2025 National Health Care Fraud Takedown, a strategically coordinated, nationwide law enforcement action that resulted in criminal charges against 324 defendants for their alleged participation in health care fraud and illegal drug diversion schemes that involved over $14.6 billion in intended loss. The defendants allegedly defrauded programs entrusted for the care of the elderly and disabled to line their own pockets, and the government, in connection with the Takedown, seized over $245 million in cash, luxury vehicles, cryptocurrency and other assets.
