

United States
Attorney's Office
Northern District of West Virginia

Morgantown Physician Sentenced for Tax Fraud

Wednesday, February 26, 2025

For Immediate Release

U.S. Attorney's Office, Northern District of West Virginia

CLARKSBURG, WEST VIRGINIA – David M. Anderson, age 64, of Morgantown, West Virginia, was sentenced to six months in federal prison for filing false tax returns.

According to court documents and statements made in court, Anderson, a physician, filed false tax returns that understated his taxable income and made false claims to lessen his tax burden, causing a loss to the IRS of $143,599 over a four-year period.

Anderson will serve three years of supervised release following his prison sentence.

Assistant U.S. Attorney Eleanor Hurney prosecuted the case on behalf of the government.

The Internal Revenue Service Criminal Investigation investigated.

Chief U.S. District Judge Thomas S. Kleeh presided.

Updated February 26, 2025

Topic

TAX

Component

USAO - West Virginia, Northern

Related Content

PRESS RELEASE

Maryland Man Admits to Role in Sophisticated Scheme to Defraud the IRS

A Maryland man has admitted to his role in a financial fraud scheme involving stolen United States Treasury checks, fraudulent business registrations, and illicit withdrawals from newly created bank accounts...

July 22, 2026

PRESS RELEASE

West Virginia Doctor Sentenced for Tax Fraud

A Wheeling, West Virginia, physician was sentenced for tax fraud that totaled nearly $2.5 million, U.S. Attorney Matthew L. Harvey announced.

March 17, 2026

PRESS RELEASE

Morgantown Construction Company Owner Admits to Harboring Illegals, Tax Fraud

Hetzon Marroquin Reyes, owner and operator of A&M Homes, LLC, in Morgantown, West Virginia, has admitted to harboring illegal aliens for financial gain and tax interference. According to the court...

March 24, 2025

Wheeling:

Suite 3000

